ABOUT GLS

GLS CAMPUS BERLIN is home to the GLS German Language School Berlin – a language travel agency and language school all in one. It was founded in 1983 by entrepreneur Barbara Jaeschke.

The language school on GLS Campus attracts more than 6000 course participants per year, 80 % of which are international students who come to Berlin to learn German. GLS German Language School is a five-time winner of the Star School Germany award by London-based Study-Travel Magazine. Whether English, Spanish, French or Mandarin, general language or specialized language courses such as legal English – GLS has more than 30 years of experience.

HISTORY

The GLS Campus is a revitalized ensemble of historic buildings first laid out in 1886, including a public bath house and adjoining municipal school (see illustration). The public baths (Stadtbad Oderberger) were closed in 1986 due to damage in the basin and remained so for the next 30 years. After the municipal school was shut in 2004, GLS acquired the building in 2005 and began to bring life to the GLS vision – a language school and event location modeled after English colleges, with its own accommodation and cafeteria. The campus' highlight, Hotel Oderberger, was designed by architect Ludwig Hoffmann as a public bath house in 1898. In 2012, GLS began to renovate the listed historic building and in January 2016, boutique Hotel Oderberger Berlin officially opened.

Durch ein gut durchdachtes Beschaffungs- und Abfallkonzept lassen wir Müll erst gar nicht entstehen. Alle nicht vermeidbaren Abfälle werden durch eine getrennte Entsorgung recycelt.

ENERGIE

Faktoren wie Gebäudedämmung, der Bezug von Ökostrom, Beleuchtung, Beschallung, Medien- und Bühnentechnik, Heizung sowie Klimaanlage bieten zahlreiche Ansatzpunkte die Energieeffizienz zu steigern und Energie zu sparen.

WASSER & REINIGUNG

Verantwortungsvoller Umgang mit der Ressource Wasser vor, während und nach der Veranstaltung.

MOBILITÄT

Veranstaltungen führen Menschen zusammen – durch An- und Abreise und Warentransport entstehen jedoch auch Emissionen. Unsere Location liegt im Herzen von Berlin und ist mit öffentlichen Verkehrsmitteln sehr gut zu erreichen.

Alle ausführlichen und weiterführenden Informationen zu unseren nachhaltigen Veranstaltungen haben wir für Sie in unserem Dokument Green Meetings zusammengefasst.
